Steamships and Pawnshops Watched for Thief of Einstein's Silver and Gems.

Marvel of a Servant, He May Have $15,000 Loot From E. 57th St. House.

The greatest activity that has been shown at Police Headquarters since the wirth of the present administration to day followed the reported robbery of the home of William Einstein, secretary of the Republican Club, at No. 21 East Fifty-seventh street. Jewels and silver-ware worth from $10,000 to $15,000 were taken from the home some time yes-
